

CONTENTS

Acknowledgements xi

Introduction xiii

1 What is marketing? 1

Marketing and management 2

Marketing, the librarian and the information professional 3

Marketing and the quality revolution 4

Marketing services 6

What can be marketed? 7

References and further reading 13

2 The corporate mission 15

The need for a mission statement 16

Vision and mission 20

Sample mission statements 21

Corporate and marketing planning – the relationship 23

References and further reading 27

3 Marketing strategies for librarians and information professionals 29

Strategy development 29

Environmental scanning 30
The marketing audit – SWOT analysis 38
Portfolio management 40
Product and market strategies 43
Product lifecycle 47
References and further reading 49

4 The marketing mix 51

The four Ps 52
The four Cs 53
Creating the marketing mix 54
Product and service/Customer value 57
Place/User convenience 59
Price/User cost 67
Promotion/User communication 70
References and further reading 77

5 Promotion and public relations 79

Public relations planning 80
Publics 80
Creating awareness 82
AIDA: a communication model 83
Professional co-operation and promotion 87
The media 87
Sponsorship 93
Exhibitions 95
Displays 97
Talks and lectures 97
Open days 98
Publications as promotion 99
Annual reports 100
Stationery 101
Recruitment advertisements 101

- Personal selling 101
- Direct marketing 102
- Press releases and press conferences 106
- References and further reading 113

- 6 Market segmentation 115
 - Characteristics of segmentation 116
 - Internet segmentation 117
 - Methods of segmentation 117
 - Geographic segmentation 118
 - Demographic segmentation 118
 - Geodemographic segmentation 120
 - Behavioural segmentation 121
 - Lifestyle segmentation 122
 - Psychographic segmentation 123
 - User adoption 126
 - Creating product differentiation 129
 - References and further reading 133

- 7 Marketing in the digital age 136
 - New roles for librarians and information professionals 136
 - Marketing libraries and information centres in the digital world 139
 - Digital mission 141
 - Digital customers 143
 - How digital marketing differs from traditional marketing 146
 - The digital marketing mix 146
 - Customer relationship management 156
 - Data mining 160
 - Digital legislation 162
 - Costs 163
 - Stickiness 164
 - References and further reading 164

8 Marketing research and market research 167

Understanding marketing research 168

Planning marketing research 172

Market research techniques 176

References and further reading 183

9 Corporate identity and corporate image 184

The importance of corporate identity and corporate image 185

Core values 185

Corporate identity 186

Identity crisis? 188

Corporate identity strategy 189

What's in a name? 192

Design 194

Typefaces 195

Logos 196

Uniforms or workwear 198

Lessons from the marketplace 199

The ACID test 200

References and further reading 200

10 The marketing plan 203

Preparing the plan 204

Ownership 205

Gaining acceptance 205

Audience 206

Timescales 207

The planning process 207

Presenting the plan 209

Contents 209

Finally 217

References and further reading 217

Index 219