

The contributors xi

Table of statutory material xiii

Table of cases xv

Figures and case studies xvii

Abbreviations xix

Preface xxiii

Disclaimer xxiii

1 Setting the scene 1

Paul Pedley

Introduction 1

Why is digital different? 3

Database right 4

How rights holders protect their interests 5

Strengthening of copyright law 6

Introduction of new protections 7

Use of technology to control access 7

Use of contract law 8

Enforcement 9

Negotiating licences 9

Model licence agreements 10

What is meant by 'digital rights management'? 11

Technical aspects of digital rights management systems 12

vi MANAGING DIGITAL RIGHTS

Legal protections for digital rights management systems	13
Legislation supporting DRM systems	13
DRM systems and the copyright exceptions	14
Managing rights	15
Balancing the needs of creators and users	16
Technology	17
Privacy issues	18
Obtaining copyright clearance	18
The permissions process	19
Licences covering digital copying offered by the collective licensing societies	20
Permitted acts/copyright exceptions	20
Berne three-step test	21
Fair dealing	21
Library privilege	23
Business models	24
Outline of following chapters	25
References	26

2 Digital rights management: an international perspective 28

Sandy Norman

Introduction	28
Information revolution and copyright	29
International agreements	30
Exceptions and the user lobby	31
Enforcement	33
E-commerce and the birth of DRM systems	33
Protection for TPS	34
Communication to the public right	36
WIPO treaties: some implementations	36
European Union	36
The USA	39
Australia	41
Rights holders vs users	42
The 'digital is different' argument	42
Technological lock-up fear	44
The fear of total control over information	44

The future: global management of rights	46
The need for standards	46
The need for legislation on collective managements of rights	46
Summary	47
Notes and references	48

3 The right to digitize: gaining copyright clearance to create digital collections of text 51

Helen Pickering

Introduction 51

Is clearance required? 51

    Materials in the public domain 52

    Government publications 53

    Copying is covered by an existing licence or by the publisher's policy 53

    Author is lecturer 56

    Fair dealing 56

Clearance routes 56

    Copyright Licensing Agency 57

    Copyright Clearance Center 57

    Newspaper Licensing Agency 58

    Rights holder (publisher/author) 58

    Agency 58

    HERON 58

Who holds the rights (and what if I can't find out)? 59

How do I locate the rights holder (and what if I can't)? 60

Obtaining permission: how to ask for permission 62

    Methods of contact 63

Terms and conditions 64

    CLA's HEI digitization licence 64

    CLA's FE licence 65

    Free permission for subscribers 65

    Material to be used when teaching 65

Timescales 66

Third-party materials 67

Issues for requesting institutions 68

Summary 69

Notes and references 70

Further reading 71

4 The right to teach 72

Linda Purdy

Introduction 72

Changes in teaching and learning 73

    Nature of the student body 73

    Financial investment 74

    Technology 75

Tutor's perspective 76

    Moving images and sound 77

        Off-air recording of broadcast materials 78

        Internet resources 79

        Clearing rights 80

        Production in-house 81

    Still images 81

    Websites 83

    Text 84

    Educational exceptions 84

    Who owns rights? 85

Student's perspective 88

    Using third-party materials 88

    Ownership of rights 90

Communicating with the user 91

Educating the user 93

The future 94

Summary 96

References 96

Organizations 97

5 The corporate rights holder's perspective 98

Ian Watson

Introduction 98

Economic and moral rights 99

    Verifying ownership 99

    Repurposing 101

    Freelance contributors 102

    PDF editions 104

    Newspaper Licensing Agency 105

    Archives and contempt of court 106

- Archives as continuous publications 106
- Archives and the one-year limitation rule 108
- Archives and the relevant jurisdiction 108
- The Law Commissioner's view 109
- Digital rights licensing 111
  - Define content to be licensed 111
  - Geographical extent 111
  - Duration 112
  - Deep linking vs content licensing 112
  - Product endorsement/derogatory treatment 113
  - Agreeing the fee 114
  - Waiving the fee 114
  - Record keeping and enforcement 115
    - Manual recording 115
    - Automated systems 115
  - Digital object identifier 116
- Business models 117
- Summary 120
- References 121
- Index 123

