

Contents

About the editors.....	vii
List of contributors	ix
Overview – Alison Brettle and Christine Urquhart	xiii
Part 1 Context	1
1 The changing context of health for library and information professionals – Christine Urquhart and Suzanne Bakker	3
The health context – Christine Urquhart	3
Health library and information professionals in Europe – Suzanne Bakker	8
2 Changes in information generation and use – Jenny Turner and Louise Goswami, Neil Ford, Sue Lacey Bryant and Christine Urquhart	15
Changes in information generation and use: the effects on NHS library staff roles – Jenny Turner and Louise Goswami	16
Taking advantage of change: how health library and information professionals are shaping the higher education experience – Neil Ford	20
Information generation and use: a primary care perspective – Sue Lacey Bryant	29
Changes in information generation and use: reflections on the effects on academic and NHS information services – Christine Urquhart	31
3 Changing technology to meet clinicians' information needs – Nicholas R. Hardiker, Joanna Dundon and Jessie McGowan	39
Clinicians' information needs – Nicholas R. Hardiker	39
The map of medicine – Joanna Dundon	42
'Just-in-Time' question answering service – Jessie McGowan	46
4 The influences of governance, consumers and evidence-based practice – Gareth Lawrence, Alison Yeoman, Alison Brettle and Prudence Dalrymple	51
What does information management for clinical governance involve? – Gareth Lawrence	51
Consumer health information – Alison Yeoman	55
Evidence-based practice and what it means for health library and information professionals – Alison Brettle	61
Not as easy as it seems: what health professionals can tell us about applying evidence in practice – Prudence Dalrymple	63

Part 2 Roles	75
5 Skills, competencies and knowledge – Christine Urquhart	77
6 The librarian as information provider and educator – Pat Spoor and Debra Thornton	89
Higher education overview – Pat Spoor	89
NHS overview – Debra Thornton	92
7 The librarian who analyses information and manages knowledge – Christine Urquhart	113
8 The librarian within research and evidence-based practice – Alison Brettle	135
9 The librarian as decision maker – Jackie Cheeseborough	161
Conclusion – Christine Urquhart and Alison Brettle	177
Index	181