

Contents

Acknowledgements .....	ix
Contributors .....	xi
Introduction: seeing the future of archives and recordkeeping.....	xvii
Part 1 Defining archives.....	1
1 Where do we come from? What are we? Where are we going? Situating the archive and archivists Victoria Lane and Jennie Hill .....	3
2 Encounters with the self: archives and research Sue Breakell .....	23
3 Strangely unfamiliar: ideas of the archive from outside the discipline Alexandrina Buchanan .....	37
Part 2 Shaping a discipline .....	63
4 Structural and formal analysis: the contribution of diplomatics to archival appraisal in the digital environment Luciana Duranti .....	65
5 Archivistics: science or art? Eric Ketelaar .....	89
Part 3 Archive 2.0: archives in society .....	101
6 Archons, aliens and angels: power and politics in the archive Verne Harris .....	103

7 Interactivity, flexibility and transparency: social media and Archives 2.0
Kate Theimer .....	123
8 The impact of independent and community archives on professional archival thinking and practice
Andrew Flinn .....	145
Part 4 Archives in the information age: is there still a role for the archivist?.....	171
9 The postcustodial archive
Adrian Cunningham .....	173
10 Information management, records management, knowledge management: the place of archives in a digital age
Nicole Convery .....	191
11 Appraisal and the future of archives in the digital era
Richard J. Cox .....	211
Index .....	237