

Contents

Preface	ix
Introduction	xi
Acknowledgements	xv
1 Take them to the library – setting the scene	1
Introduction.....	1
An overview of early childhood services.....	2
Literacy is a human right.....	3
The role of the public library in supporting young children.....	5
The role of early years librarians	8
Policy and partnerships: Sure Start children’s centres.....	12
The early years library: creating the right environment.....	15
What practitioners need to know about young children.....	17
Reading – making sense of those funny little squiggles.....	22
Reading as a social activity.....	26
Reading and storytelling activities in the early years library.....	28
Conclusion: helping to create positive experiences and.....	29
memories in your library
Issues and questions.....	30
Key points to remember.....	30
Useful organizations.....	30

2 People and partnerships, skills and knowledge.....	31
Introduction.....	31
How to develop a family-friendly service – breaking down.....	33
barriers to library use
Know your community – library standards and impact.....	36 measures
Developing effective partnerships – with other.....	39
professionals and partner organizations
Partnerships – encouraging parents and carers to get involved.....	42
Involving fathers.....	48
Involving grandparents.....	50
The home learning environment.....	51
Reaching families with low literacy – The Vital Link approach.....	52
Issues and questions.....	54
Key points to remember.....	54
Useful organizations.....	54
3 Buildings, design and space.....	55
Introduction.....	55
Why should early years librarians be concerned about.....	56 architecture and design?
First impressions – the challenge.....	57
The library as a community space.....	58
The importance of the environment and space.....	59
Architecture and design – planning and designing spaces	60
for the children’s libraries of the future
Design is important.....	61
The role of the client – consultation opportunities.....	62
Room planning – some things to consider.....	67
Book display.....	70
Furniture and equipment.....	71
Carpets and soft furnishings.....	73
Signage and guiding.....	74
Storage.....	75
Stimulation, mood and sound.....	75

Refreshing spaces – making a tired space into.....	78
something better
Issues and questions.....	78
Key points to remember.....	78
Useful organizations.....	79
4 Resources for early years libraries – books, toys.....	81
and other delights
Introduction.....	81
Collection development and management.....	81
The early years collection.....	84
How do you do it? Guidelines for book selection.....	86
Selecting books for the early years collection.....	90
Selecting dual-language books for the bilingual child.....	91
Selecting books for young boys.....	92
Selecting books for children with special educational needs.....	94
Selecting books for the parenting collection.....	96
Other resources in the early years library.....	97
Selecting videos and DVDs.....	104
Selecting audio tapes and CDs.....	104
Music resources – opportunities for listening and participation..	105
Computer programs for young children.....	105
Sources of information for early years stock selection.....	105
Issues and questions.....	111
Key points to remember.....	112
5 Reaching your audience – the librarian’s role.....	113
Introduction.....	113
Providing a welcoming atmosphere.....	113
Introducing a love of books to babies, young children,.....	115
parents and families
Using treasure baskets with babies.....	117
Using picture books.....	118
Rhyme times.....	119
Musical sessions – communicating through making music.....	122

Stories and storytelling.....	123
Families sharing stories.....	126
Stories in other languages – supporting the bilingual learner.....	126
Strategies for sharing stories with children – the librarian as.....	128 performer
Puppets.....	131
Reaching ‘hard to reach’ audiences.....	132
Promotion and campaigns in early years libraries.....	136
A look elsewhere – early years activities in other countries.....	139
Final comments.....	142
Issues and questions.....	142
Key points to remember.....	142
Useful organizations.....	142
6 Planning.....	145
Introduction.....	145
Organizational planning – strategic, tactical, operational.....	145
SMART objectives.....	147
The challenges of partnership work – planning.....	147
shared objectives
Planning and organizing projects.....	148
Planning budgets and money matters in the early years library....	150
Planning library sessions.....	152
Planning and evaluation.....	158
Personal development planning – managing your own CPD.....	162
The reflective practitioner.....	163
Issues and questions.....	164
Key points to remember.....	164
Final comments.....	165
Appendix.....	167
References.....	173
Index.....	181