

Contents

Foreword	ix
How to read this book	xi
Acknowledgements	xii
Part 1 Who is the librarian?	1
1 Professionalism and the school librarian.....	1
What are the discourses of professionalism?.....	4
Discourse of managerialism	4
Discourse of technical-rationalism	9
Discourse of social democracy	11
Where does this leave school librarianship in the 21st century?.....	15
What influences the school librarian's professional identity?	18
Our professional identity	22
2 How others see us.....	25
Who are the significant others?.....	27
Within the school community	27
Outside the school	34
What influences the perceptions of these significant stakeholders? ..	36
How do school librarians think the stakeholders see them?.....	41
What are the implications of the perceptions of the librarian?.....	44
Conclusion.....	45

3	Bridging the gap	47
	Is there always a dichotomy?	47
	In what circumstances might a dichotomy arise?	49
	How can we resolve the dichotomy?	55
 Part 2 Your community: from perceptions to practice.		61
4	Identifying and understanding your community	61
	How do we define our community?	62
	What informs the ways we explore our community?	64
	Ways of thinking about your learning community	66
	What does learning look like in our own institutions?	69
	What does learning look like for the individuals in our own communities?	73
 5	 Making a positive response	 77
	Getting into position	77
	What is possible in the real world of school libraries?	78
	Staying positive	80
	Using evidence to support your case	83
	Benchmarking between school libraries	83
	Learning from the world	86
	Making a difference	88
	Tapping in to school and user priorities	89
	How do we make line-management systems work for us?	92
	How do we use other relationships to help us?	95
	Learning from the students	97
	What if our personal vision does not match the library reality?	99
	How do we know if we are meeting the needs of our community?	100
	How well are we doing?	101
 Part 3 Moving forward.		103
6	Inspiration	103
	What is inspiration?	103
	Where does inspiration fit into school librarianship?	103

At what levels can inspiration operate?	107
How do we keep ourselves inspired?	111
Inspiration from inside ourselves.	113
Inspiration from inside the school.	114
Inspiration from outside the school.	115
What has inspired us?	119
Reality check	121
Inspiring others	122
7 Becoming integral to teaching and learning.	127
But what does integration mean?	127
Becoming an integral part of the teaching team	128
Beyond information skills	131
Possible starting points	132
Sustaining integration into teaching and learning	134
Becoming integral to the structure of the school	135
Pathways to integration at school level	139
8 Innovation	143
Connect	144
Act	146
Evidence.	149
Managing change.	151
Process and principles of managing change	153
Using whole-school processes and the key change agents	154
References	157
Websites cited	166
Appendix 1 Levels of education.	167
Appendix 2 School library self-evaluation questions	168

Appendix 3 Sample survey of teachers' perceptions of the role of the school librarian. 170

Appendix 4 SWOT analysis 171

Appendix 5 Choosing priorities in development planning – sample grid 173

Appendix 6 An example of a completed self-evaluation. 174

Appendix 7 Some possibilities for gaining inspiration in the UK . . . 176

Appendix 8 Tools for managing change 180

Appendix 9 Managing change: process and principles. 181

Index. 187